TO THE MEMBERS OF THE MYLROIE CLAN:

When this search first started, I felt that I was up against a stone wall. I looked all over the country and asked every knowledgeable person I met if they had ever come across the name Mylroie and what was it's origin. I had romantized that the name was of French origin and meant 1,000 Kings. No such thing. It's of Scotch extraction as noted on the first page.

I had just about given up on finding the name when in a parking lot in Seattle, WA I saw one of the stalls had a nameplate with the name Mylroie on it. As soon as I got to a telephone book, I looked up the name and found three in the Seattle area. Then I looked in my own Tacoma telephone book and here was another name. Then the Olympia book got a search and here was another. Contact was made and that started the information on the Mylroie's.

My progenitor, Amelia Mylroie, was fairly easy to find but her sibilings took another bit of time. Mrs. Robert Perkins set me on the right track to find John James Jr. The address furnished me for Susan Mylroie Zurhorst was an old one but fortunately she still lived there.

Amelia's sister Nettie was another cup of tea. Nobody but nobody knew anything about the Enzensperger's. The name was familiar to my brothers and myself but we couldn't give it a location. It took a trip to the Isle of Man to find that they lived in Mill Valley, CA.

It is my hope that by sending out this far from finished record of the Mylroie family that others will have information to add so that we may complete the history.

Just recently, I joined the N. American Manx Assn. Just in case you are desirous of belonging to this group I want to include this information. The dues are $6.00 per year. Mr. William E. Brideson, 6821 Duke Dr., Alexandria, VA 22307 is in charge of memberships. At your request, he will send to you an application for membership which you will return to the Treasurer, Mr. Clarence Creer, 14228 Union, Orland Park, IL 60462. You will then receive your membership card and your first bulletin. There is also a Ladies Auxillary which the ladies can join for an additional $2.00. Contact Mrs. Amo Fisher, R R 3 Tottenham, Ontario, Canada L0G 1W0.

If you join this organization now, you will be eligible to attend the convention which is being held in San Diego, CA this year. The dates are August 6 - 9, 1982. Wouldn't it be fun to have a whole bunch of Mylroie descendents there?

You'll find that I've not included information about this generation. To publish that information would require getting releases from each of you and at this time I don't feel that this should be done as this record is far from complete.

Distribution of this booklet will be to the people who have contributed information. Also I plan to send a copy to the Dodgeville Public Library in the hopes that somebody will come looking for information.

If you have additional information, please send it to me. I'll be glad to reimburse for reasonable expenses. I'm very anxious to get a copy of a picture of John James Mylroie, Sr.

THE MYLROIE'S
ISLE OF MAN

The Mylroie's - where did they come from and where did they go. They came from the Isle of Man and have spread to many parts of the world.

We have two versions of our beginning. The first reads: "The earliest form of the name Mylroie was Mac-giolla-ruadh (about the year 843 A.D.) meaning 'Son of the red or sandy haired youth' and shows that we are descended from Vikings (Norsemen). The ancient history of the family says that they 'Came over the hill from Agneish and settled in Glen Roy' (on the Isle of Man) and then came to Laxey Glen where the family is supposed to have lived for centuries." This information from Susan Mylroie Zurhorst. Agneish, Glen Roy and Laxey are really not that far apart in this day and age but I suppose that in the time of our ancestors it was a distance to be remembered.

Our second version tells us that in 1417 A.D. the name was Mac Gil Roy and they were descendents of the red or sandy haired youth. On information given to the Joseph Enzensperger's by John Mylroie on a visit to the Isle of Man many years ago it is learned that the family is known on this island since the early 1000's. The surprise for all of us is that "Mylroie" is not the original family name. In the beginning it was Mac Gil Roy but when the Irish came to the island with their McGilroy the "Mac's" didn't like that so they changed it to our present version of Mylroie. We are told that the family are pure Scotch, they were all tall, strikingly handsome and brilliant people, fair with blue eyes. The men were famous for their strength and height and fiery red whiskers.

The two versions of the Mylroie's beginnings are very similar except for whether Viking origin or Scotch. The name Mac Gilroy is associated with the Scottish clan "MacGillivray". This from "The Scottish Clans and their Tartans", 41st edition published by Johnston and Bacon.

Be that as it may, the Isle of Man was visited many times by various people and they all had their influence. I really don't think that visited is really the word to use. It should be invaded. There is evidence of Roman, Irish, Scotch, Norsemen, English and whatever other nation was roaming the seas in the early days, on the island.

The Manx people just recently celebrated their "Millenium" which was a thousand years of continuous government. Their only connection with England is the homage they pay the ruling monarch. They have their own money and postage stamps and while they will take your English money you will receive change in Manx currency. Any mail that is sent from the IOM must use their stamps. Just thought you'd like this bit of information and that it might come in handy if you are ever lucky enough to visit the Isle of Man.

Let's start out our search with Richard McNeroy who had a son David, bap 1727. This David married Margaret Kermott (Kermode) 7 Nov 1755. Among their children (see Family Group Sheet No. 1 for the other names) was a son David b 9 May 1762. This David married Catherine Quayle and their son William b 6 Nov 1803 was the "baker" of Laxey, Lonan Parish. The other children of this marriage are listed on Family Group Sheet No. 2.

William Mylroie first married Margaret (Louisa) Gelling. Their only child was John James Sr. I believe that Margaret died about two years later after the birth of another child who also died. William then married Jane Gelling, who I believe was Margaret's sister and they had seven children. One died in infancy. See FGS No. 3 & 3A.

For our purposes we will concentrate on the descents of the above William Mylroie and later on give what information there is of the other branches of the family. We will start with the eldest son of William Mylroie.

JOHN JAMES MYLROIE SR

He was b in Laxey, Lonan Parish, IOM on 29 May 1831 and died 10 Oct 1886. It is not known where he died but there is a stone in the Dodgeville Cemetery marked Mylroie across the top with just the words "Father" and the dates on the side. The story of his death is that he died from drinking poisoned water while taking refuge in a ditch during a cattle stampede or while working in a mine. In any event, he didn't die in Dodgeville, WI. The Dodgeville Chronicle doesn't seem to have an obituary for him, which surprises me as he and his half-brother, William were working a brickyard in Dodgeville in 1881 so he wasn't entirely unknown there.

JOSEPH + AMELIA
Gilbrough, MILDIE PENBERTH Dubuque, Iowa

As a young man he came to Dodgeville, WI, USA. This was about 1853 according to some sources. It was probably earlier than that as he received his citizenship papers in 1856 and he had to have two years of intent before applying for his papers which took three years. He doesn't appear in the Dodgeville, WI 1850 U S Census so that narrows it down. After he became established, he sent for his step-mother and his half-brothers and sisters. We hear that five came over. His father, William Mylroie had died in 1848 in Laxey.

John was a big man, standing 6'5" in height and weighed 265 lbs. This from the Scotch ancestry? He became a naturalized citizen 4 Nov 1856 in Circuit Court, Iowa Co., WI. He and his half-brother William took part in the government of their adopted town, serving as village trustees and electors. They also were active in the Primitive Methodist Church there.

The first marriage of John was to Elizabeth Jane Dunn Richards who came from England. After her death he married Margaret Ennett, a native of the IOM.

The first child born to John and Elizabeth was a daughter Amelia Jane Dunn Mylroie b 9 May 1860. There were two other children born of this marriage namely John James Jr and Ancenetta (Nettie). See FGS No. 4. We shall follow the lives of these three children.

Amelia - An item in the Dodgeville Chronicle of 1 Aug 1873 tells of the little daughter of John Mylroie, aged 12 years, receiving a severe bruise on the left side of the face, closing up her eye and nose. This was from an accident that occurred when a wagon being driven by the young son of John Treloar overturned. This could be no one but Amelia.

We hear that Amelia was a schoolteacher for a while before she married Joseph C. Penberthy on 8 Feb 1883 at the home of her father. The news item, carried in the Dodgeville Chronicle, told of the wedding presents that the bride and groom received as well as the fact that the bride wore a peacock blue dress. Among the gifts listed was a watch as a gift from the groom. Also listed was silver table service from a Wm. F. Richards and family, Eureka, Nevada. I've not been able to establish a relationship between Amelia and this family but it must have been close. Perhaps he was her uncle? His name appears in the Chronicle at various times.

Again, from a news item of the Chronicle, we find that Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Penberthy were the proud parents of a son b 9 Nov 1883. This would have been Harvey. An item under the date of 20 Mar 1885 states that Richard Henry Arthur and Joseph Penberthy started for Miller, Hand Co., Dakota on Tuesday to resume farming operations on their lands. One week later, we learn that Mrs. Joseph Penberthy left yesterday to join her husband at Miller, which is to be their future residence.

After being hailed out for two years in succession in their farming operation, the family moved to Kent, WA. Two sons were born while they were in Dakota, namely Alden and William. Another son was born after their arrival in Kent, WA. He was named Joseph, Jr. The first record that we have of their life in Kent is a deed for a lot made out to Amelia in 1893.

In the middle of the year 1895, Amelia and her family moved to Salt Lake City, Utah. There seems to have been other members of her family there at that time. Amelia died there on 8 Jan 1896 after the birth of her fifth child. The child was placed for adoption but died at a young age. Joseph brought the children back to Kent, WA where they lived for some years. Harvey married in 1911 and moved to Walla Walla, WA. The Harvey Penberthy's moved to Tacoma, WA about 1913 and about 1916 his father Joseph came to live with the family. The next oldest boy, Alden, was on his own by then but the two youngest boys, William and Joe, went to live with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Enzensperger at San Jose, CA. This was Amelia's sister.

John James Mylroie Jr. - He was the second child of John James Sr and Elizabeth Jane. He was b 28 Jan 1862. He was a cartographer and his maps of the Yukon, the Panama Canal and the Mormon trek westward, which he signed as "J. J. Millroy" are included in the Yale University Collection of Americana. His wife's name is listed as Margaret but that is all the information that I have on her at this time. I would be pleased to receive more information on this family. There must be quite a story about his life.

John James Miller Mylroie was the son of the above. He was b 22 Mar 1892 in Chicago, IL. He became a mechanical engineer and statistician. As a young man he joined the Research Department of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., in Akron, Ohio. Subsequently, he entered business for himself. During WWII he served as a civilian senior statistician at the Pentagon in Washington, D. C. under General Meyers of the U. S. Air Force. His wife was Kate August Creque. They had seven children whose names were, John Miller, Susan Joanne, Kathryne Barbara, Thomas Creque, Mary Lavina, Jayme Annette and James Franklin. He died 6 Nov 1970 at Boynton Beach, Florida.

Nettie Emzengsperger

Ancenetta (Nettie) - Nettie or Nonnie, as she was affectionately called by her immediate family, was the third child of John James Sr and Elizabeth Jane Dunn Mylroie. She was born in Dodgeville, WI on 12 Nov 1866. Her mother died while she was still a babe.

Not too much is known of her early life until she arrived in Glenwood Springs as a young school teacher. There she met and married Joseph George Enzensperger. Joseph and his brother Frank were mining engineers having been born and raised in Tremont, PA. They were successful in their mining careers and helped found the town of Glenwood Springs, CO. They opened a restaurant, built the Glenwood Springs Hotel and played in the band. After their first son, Frank, was born Nettie and Joseph moved to Salt Lake City, UT. Their second son, Joseph George, Jr. was born in 1896 and Robert Joseph in 1898.

The family lived in various towns in California until they settled in San Jose, CA. Information from the family tells us that Nettie was an antique buyer in her later years.

Nettie died in San Jose, CA in 1955 where she is buried. Her husband, Joseph died in San Francisco, CA in 1936 and is also buried in San Jose, CA. Nettie lived for many years with her son Robert Joseph and his wife, Vera.

Nettie and Joseph were the hosts for the celebration of the wedding of Stella Penberthy and Frank Gardner in 1898. Stella was the daughter of Joseph Penberthy by his first marriage to Elizabeth A Davey.

CATHERINE MYLROIE

Catherine was the first child of William and Jane Gelling Mylroie. She was born in Laxey, Lonan Parish IOM on 25 Aug 1833. She came to Dodgeville with her family when John James Sr brought them here from the IOM. She married John Tregilgus on 11 Dec 1862 in Dodgeville, according to the Iowa Co. Records. At one time there was a butcher shop in Dodgeville under the name of Mylroie and Tregilgus. The Mylroie of that firm was, I believe, her brother Joseph.

WILLIAM MYLROIE

William was half brother to John James Sr. He was born 28 Dec 1834 at Laxey, Lonan Parish, IOM. He was the second child born to William and Jane Gelling Mylroie. He married Mary Anne Vincent on 6 Jun 1860. Of this marriage there were three children, Louisa b 1862, Clarisa (Kitty) b 1864 and William Garfield b 1882. He became a dentist in Dodgeville.

In the book "Schools of Iowa Co." and item tells this. "In 1881 John and William Mylroie opened a brickyard on the north side of West North St. and this homemade brick was used in the new school."

William Mylroie was a miner by trade and for a while the family lived at Silver Plume, CO. This town was near the Continental Divide. A Henry Penberthy had lived at Silver Plume in 1885. He was a descendent of the first Penberthy's that came to Dodgeville, WI, he being the son of William and Katherine Cornelius Penberthy.

The oldest daughter, Louisa, lived in Pendleton, OR. Her married name is not known. Clarisa (Kitty) married a Pengilly. She died a resident of Madison, WI survived by two children, Roy Pengilly who lives near Marshfield, WI, a farmer, and Mrs. William Marling, who died a resident of Madison. Mrs. Marling is survived by two sons, both in the lumber business, one in Madison, WI and the other in Janesville, WI.

Dr. Mylroie had one son, Garfield Mylroie, who now lives in California. Dr. Mylroie died 17 Dec 1955 in Dodgeville. FGS #5A

William Mylroie died in Dodgeville 11 May 1902 and is buried in the Dodgeville Cemetery. His wife, Mary Ann Vincent was born in Galena, IL on 17 Mar 1843. Her parents were Samuel and Elizabeth Vincent both born in England. Mary Ann died in Dodgeville 5 Sep 1904 and is buried in the cemetery there. See FGS No. 5.

MARGARET MYLROIE

Margaret was the third child of William and Jane Gelling Mylroie. She was born 20 Dec 1836 in Laxey, Lonan Parish, IOM. I believe that she came to this country with her family but I have no further information about her.

ANN JANE MYLROIE

Ann Jane was the fourth child of William and Jane Gelling Mylroie. She was born 24 Feb 1839 in Laxey, Lonan Parish, IOM. I believe that she also came to this county but again there seems to be no record. She probably married, so of course, her name is changed.

JOSEPH MYLROIE

He was the fifth child of William and Jane Gelling Mylroie. He was born on the Isle of Man 15 Nov 1840 and came to the United States with his family sometime around 1853. He also was born in Laxey. He married Catherine W. Cornelius on 30 Apr 1873 in Dodgeville, WI. He was a butcher by trade in his early days. The family moved to Adrian, MN where they had a large farm. The family later moved to Titusville, now Kent WA in 1893.

Joseph had a very eventful life. As a young man, he was a drover, helping to bring cattle from Texas to the shipping point in Abalene, KS. While enroute they had many skirmishes with the Indians. On one trip he was wounded through his right hand with an arrow.

He went to Alaska in 1898 with his brother-in-law William Davies as a partner during the Gold Rush. They went over Chilkoot Pass. It was a long line of men going and if a man fell out of line he had to go the bottom and start up over again. Both men were friends of the prospector Jack Dalton, who the previous season, had blazed a trail to where he had found gold in large quantities. Jack Dalton took both men in with him where they staked claims. In one summer, Joe and Bill cleaned up over 6,000 ounces of gold. Being tired they decided to return home and turned their claims over to their sons William Mylroie and William Davies. Later the two partners, Joseph Mylroie and William Davies, went to Australia during the discovery of gold there. The two made a little over expenses and returned home to Kent, WA.

Of the marriage of Joseph and Catherine Mylroie, four children were born in Adrian, MN.

Clare Mylroie married Charles Thomas Weatherby 27 Jan 1891. Three children were born of this marriage, Chester, who died at the age of three, Neil William Wetherby b 4 Sep 1893 at Tecumseh, Nebraska in his grandfather Wetherby's home on the grandfather's birthdate. Ethel was born un Luverne, MN on 6 Jul 1896. Clare then separated from her husband and came to Kent, WA. Clare was known to her grandchildren as Mama Clare. Mama Clare worked the rest of her life. In Phoenix, AZ, at the Sears store, she fell down the stairs leading to the basement and fractured her skull. She died in April 1955 in Phoenix, AZ and is buried in Kent, WA.

Maude Mylroie attended schools in Kent, WA. She had a class at the University of Washington on mushrooms, of which she was an expert. She married a lawyer named George E. Morris, the son of a Methodist hell fire and damnation minister. George Morris later became Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington. They had one son, Edward Morris who learned to fly airplanes with which he became very proficient. While flying over the Alaskan wilderness, the plane crashed and he was killed. Ted is survived by a son, Robert Morris, who lives in Seattle, WA. Maude, her husband and son are buried in Seattle, WA.

Ruth Mylroie never married and died at the age of 80 years. She, like her sister Clare, fell in one of the department stores in Seattle and died that night, was cremated and interred beside her parents in Kent, WA. Ruth graduated from the University of Washington in 1906. She taught schools in Washington, Alaska and Hawaii.

Ruth taught school during the year 1912 at Kodiak Island, Alaska and that was the year when Mt. Katmai erupted. Fine grain ash was emitted. This ash was carried by the air currents around the world. The ash on Kodiak made large drifts which almost covered many houses. Ruth and her cousin Hildred Davies (Irskin) were taken off the island by the Revenue Cutter "Bear" which was later the flag ship of Admiral Byrd in the Antarctic.

William Mylroie came to Kent, WA with his parents. He went to Alaska with his father in the Gold Rush days. After his father and William Davies left Alaska, Will stayed in Alaska for eight more years. After coming back to Kent, he married Adaline Shinn, the daughter of a wealthy hop grower of the area. They had one daughter who died in infancy and one son, Joseph, named after his grandfather. Young Joseph's wife's name is Virginia. He retired from the Bell Telephone Co. and now lives in Tacoma, WA.

An item from the White River Journal, Kent, WA of 9 Dec 1893 gives this information. "The 'Dime Social' given by the Methodist Ladies at the residence of J. Mylroie on last Wednesday evening was a success. A goodly number were present and the games were puzzlers. The proverbial 'coffee and cake' were present also."

JAMES MYLROIE

James was the seventh and youngest child of the William and Jane Gelling Mylroie family. There was a sixth child named James but he evidently died in infancy and as was the custom the next child of the proper gender was given the name. Not much is known of him and his life and times here in the United States. He was born 17 Aug 1845 in Laxey, Lonan Parish, IOM and was known to have lived in Sweetwater, TX. The only record that I have of him appears in the 1900 U. S. Census of Texas. He was reported to be living in Knox County with his wife, Mary O'Toole Mylroie, his father-in-law and a sister-in-law. Inquiries in that area have brought no return. The O'Toole family came from Nebraska so it's possible they might have returned there. FGS No. 6.

Of the children of John James Mylroie, Sr. and his wife Margaret Ennett I don't have a lot of information except what is shown on the Family Group Sheet No. 7. The one exception is for their youngest son, George Douglas.

GEORGE DOUGLAS MYLROIE

This man is the youngest son of John James Mylroie Sr. and his second wife Margaret Ennett. He is a half-brother to John James Jr. (J. J. Millroy) and uncle to John James Miller Mylroie. He was born 15 Oct 1882 in Dodgeville, WI. He married Nellie Ellis on 4 Aug 1909. They had two children born in Seattle, WA. George Douglas died 31 May 1953 and Nellie Ellis died 3 Sep 1973, both in Seattle, WA.

* * * * *

While on the Isle of Man I was able to contact Arthur Mylroie who gave me information about the family. His parents were John and Alice Corlett Mylroie. John's parents were Thomas Arthur and Jermima Kermod Mylroie. Thomas' parents were John and Eleanor Faragher Mylroie. John's parents were James and Ann Kewley (Cowley) Mylroie. James Jr.'s parents were James and Eleanor Skillicorn Mylroie. This takes us back to 1766. He is fortunate that he has pictures back several generations.

His family had a store in Laxey, which at one time, carried dry goods, furniture and the like. The building still stands with the name Mylroie on it. The father sold the business many years ago and retired to Glen Vine near Douglas.

There is a family of Mylroie's that came to Wyoming, Utah and Idaho and settled in the early days. I found their family representative through the CFI of the Mormon Church. I was fortunately able to contact Victor Mylroie, who now lives in Webster, NY. That's near Rochester. So far, we've found no connection between the families but by perserverance, we'll make it. Please refer to FGS No's 8, 9, 10 & 11 and Ped Chart No 1. I tried my best to find some relationship to Anna Isabella Quinne Mylroie but no luck. I think that it is such a lovely name.

In my search for Penberthy's, I found a family of Mylroie's in Zimbabwe (Rhodesia). As you can see on FGS No. 12 the information that I have is rather sketchy, having no birthdates included. My correspondent is Mrs. George (Lynette) Mylroie. She tells me that the five brothers are now deceased. She isn't sure about Robert as he left home at an early age and has not been heard from for many years. I would rather imagine that the family came to Africa in the early 1900's. If the name Thomas Alfred means anything to any of you, please let me know.

Just recently, through an obituary in the Bulletin of the N. American Manx Assn. the parents of Mrs. Katherine Belford were listed as Thomas Mylroie and Emily Clague. Her son's name was listed and I contacted him. His name is Earel Belford and lives in Urbana, Ohio. He told me that his mother came from Agneash. As soon as he gets things sorted out, he'll send more information.

This is the story of the Mylroie family as I know it now. I'm sure there is more to tell. Let's hear from you. If I've made mistakes, please let me know so we can correct them.
